

MIDDLESEX STARS WIN NATIONAL JUNIOR PAIRS TITLE

Hendon Bowling Clubs Alfie Hill (on right) and Glen Adams are the 2019 National Junior Pairs Champions.

This superb achievement gives Middlesex their first National Champions since Simon Jee in 2005.

Glen is currently both a Junior and Senior International and we hope this success leads the way to recognition for Alfie. The success is all the more timely as this is the last season Glen is eligible for the Under 25's.

Their path to glory was as follows:-

Round 1 - Won 14-10 v Hampshire's Alex Linter & Danny Smith

Round 2 – Won 23-11 v Hertfordshire's Jack Bunting & Tom Muir

Quarter Final – Won 25-11 v Cornwall's Frazer Hawkey & Alasdair Williams

Semi Final – Won 16-7 – Northamptonshire's Kieran Rollings and Connor Cinato

Final – Won 19-16 v Devon's Dominic Tuckett & Harry Goodwin

Middlesex Under 25 Manager John Sweeney was ecstatic following the victory of Alfie and Glen commenting – “Brilliant victory for the lads and Middlesex in the final against Devon with some fantastic bowls being played by both teams. Having cruised through the Quarter and Semi Finals they knew they faced their biggest challenge against current holder Harry Goodwin, friend and fellow International colleague of Glen but the lads managed both the game and themselves immaculately giving their supporters a great afternoon. Onwards now to the Junior Singles for both Alfie and Glen”
