2022 HOME COUNTIES LEAGUE GROUP GAME 3

MIDDLESEX BA V KENT BA

SAT 2nd JULY – BROOMFIELD BC – 1100HRS

It's do or die time for Middlesex in this seasons Home Counties League with a place in the final on the line.

Saturday sees Middlesex face Kent at Broomfield BC knowing victory will see them proceed to the final on July 16th, anything less (*) and the competitive season ends and Kent progress.

It's been a slightly bizarre campaign so far with both Middlesex and Kent beating Bucks and losing to Hampshire. Hampshire then realised they had played to many Middleton players and had their results expunged leaving Middlesex top by 2 points.

Saturday sees 3 players making their Home Counties debuts, Nick Waker (Broomfield), George Harper (Poplar) and Neil Farnish (Ladygate). Neil won the National Over 55 singles whilst playing out of Bucks, so he is solid proof of Middlesex bringing through the youth!!!!

It is assumed the days other scheduled game; Hampshire v Bucks won't be taking place as neither can qualify.

In the other section Oxfordshire lead by 11 points with 2 wins, they finish with Surrey at Kidlington. Berkshire play Sussex at Bracknell BC. Sussex are the only side who can't make the final from this group.

Middx's final game starts at 11 and spectators will be welcomed to cheer the boys on to a place in the final.

Full report some point next week

(*) Theoretically Middx could win on 5 rinks and lose the match by less than 6 and progress on shot difference
